

MDU Preparing For Your First Consultant Post Workshop Programme

In association with Healthcare Performance Limited

Lead presenter:	Dr Mike Roddis
Facilitators:	MDU Medico-Legal Adviser
09:00	Registration
09:30	Outline of the day, sharing expectations: What we hope to achieve
10:00	Culture shocks 1: What do consultants actually do? Line management of senior doctors. The role of the clinical director and medical director.
10:45	Coffee
11:00	Culture shocks 2: Job planning and appraisal.
11:45	Team work and leadership. The romance of teams. True teams and false teams. How does leading a team differ from working in a team? Group work
12:30	Managing meetings as participants and as chair. Exercise
13:15	Lunch
14:00	What makes a good consultant. Technical, professional and people skills. Group work
14:30	Understanding the quality of your practice. MDU presentation by a doctor from the MDU medico-legal team. Risk management, dealing with clinical incidents and complaints, claims.
15:30	Tea
15:45	Round up Learning from the day – meeting of original objectives. Action points – future learning plan. Fill out evaluation forms
16:30	Close